Stuart Shils
New Paintings

November 20, 2008 – January 10, 2009

The Tibor de Nagy Gallery is pleased to present new paintings by Stuart Shils. The exhibition will comprise cityscapes from Stuart's native Philadelphia, and New York City, along with landscapes from Umbria, Italy. The artist, who in the past has worked no larger than 12 x 14 inches, has expanded his scale to include diptych paintings four times this size. Working on-site he is able to capture the rich colors of the Italian countryside, along with the play of light and shadow against the row houses and buildings of Philadelphia and New York City.

Stuart Shils has exhibited widely throughout the United States and Ireland. He received a B.F.A. from the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts and has been the recipient of numerous grants and awards including a Pollock-Krasner Foundation Grant and an Academy Award in Art from the American Academy of Arts and Letters in New York.

An exhibition catalogue is available.

Carolyn Harris
Recent Work

November 20, 2008 – January 10, 2009

The Tibor de Nagy Gallery is pleased to present its second exhibition of work by Carolyn Harris. The exhibition includes a selection of recent paintings, watercolors and pastels. The work depicts both the lush, rich landscape, and the rugged shores of Gloucester, Massachusetts, where the artist spends her summers. Equally at home in various mediums, she captures the crisp blue shoreline, beautiful autumn fields, and lush foliage. Harris received a B.F.A. in painting from The University of North Carolina at Greensboro, and an M.A. from U.N.C. at Chapel Hill. The artist's work has been included in numerous group exhibitions since 1960.

An exhibition catalogue is available.
